

Jasmine F. Robinson

Associate

jrobinson@whitewiggins.com
214-303-3003
Dallas

Practice Areas:

- Commercial Litigation
- Product Liability
- Tort/Insurance Defense

Jasmine F. Robinson is an associate in the Dallas office. Jasmine primarily practices in the area of commercial litigation representing plaintiffs and defendants. She has successfully negotiated settlements in property subrogation cases on behalf of an electric service provider client and is responsible for discovery stages of litigation.

Prior to joining White and Wiggins, Jasmine's work experience included family law, specifically child support, and mass tort litigation. Jasmine has also done extensive e-discovery work in the areas of insurance litigation and mortgage backed securities litigation.

EDUCATION

- J.D., University of Cincinnati College of Law, Ohio (2009)
- B.A., cum laude, Xavier University of Louisiana, Louisiana (2006)

BAR/COURT ADMISSIONS

- Admitted, State of Texas (2011)
- Admitted, State of Ohio (2010)

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES/MEMBERSHIPS

- Member, State Bar of Texas
- Member, Dallas Bar Association
- Member, Dallas Association of Young Lawyers

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

- Dallas Court Appointed Special Advocate, Volunteer
- Dallas Area Habitat For Humanity
- Volunteer with the Dallas Association of Young Lawyers

PRESENTATIONS/PUBLICATIONS

- Co-Author, 2014 Business and Commercial Law Update, State Bar of Texas Section of Litigation, 30th Annual Litigation Update Institute, January 2014