Tampa Bay was the site of a Civil war battle on June 30th, 1862 when a Union Gunboat entered Tampa Bay and turned broadside aiming her cannons at the city of Tampa. A launch of 20 soldiers came ashore and demanded the surrender of the city of Tampa. Local forces refused and the shots began. By July 1st, the captain of the gunship had had enough and they left the bay.

"Tampa" (Tanpa) means "sticks of fire" in the language of an early native tribe. This is believed to be because of the many lightning strikes seen in Tampa.

Whiskey Joe's proudly supports Tampa's own Big Cat Rescue. Recognized as one of America's best private charities and winner of numerous awards including animal planet's "animal hero". A portion of all revenues at Whiskey Joe's goes to support BigCatRescue.org
